FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE - 07/10/2016

Chief Fluid Systems back to back winners of this award!!

For the past year, APAC Insider's in-house research and awards team have been working hard to identify the very best firms in Australia; the innovators of their respective sectors, the paragons.

After much deliberation, I am delighted to announce that Chief Fluid Systems Pty Ltd has been recognised in your business sector with the title of:

Best for MIL Spec Products 2016

"The Australian Business awards were launched to shine a spotlight on the on-going work of companies of all sizes and business sectors; from law, manufacturing, construction, retail, agriculture, finance, consultancy and management, in a region defined by business excellence.

Your work in your business sector has been considered as exemplary, and Chief Fluid Systems Pty Ltd are truly deserving of being acknowledged for the hard-earned successes over the past year. This award serves to recognise that you are among the very best in Australia. One of an elite few."

We would just like to say a big thank you to all who voted for us, it's greatly appreciated.
